Q13 Traffic stop data collected by Vermont police statewide has consistently shown racial disparities in police stops, where Black people are stopped, searched, and cited at a higher rate than white people, even though they are statistically less likely to have done anything wrong. Do you strongly agree, somewhat agree, somewhat disagree, or strongly disagree that Vermont needs to do more to address racial discrimination in policing?

Strongly agree	49%
Somewhat agree	20%
Somewhat disagree	12%
Strongly disagree	13%
Not sure	5%

Q14 The number of fatal shootings by Vermont police has risen over the past several decades, and in recent years more people have been killed by police than in years past. Two years ago, Vermont passed a law limiting when police can use force, including lethal force. Do you strongly agree, somewhat agree, somewhat disagree, or strongly disagree that more needs to be done to make sure police only use force when absolutely necessary?

Strongly agree	52%
Somewhat agree	24%
Somewhat disagree	12%
Strongly disagree	9%
Not sure	3%

Q15 Now I'm going to ask you some questions about qualified immunity. Qualified immunity comes up in lawsuits filed against public officials, including police, when they are accused of serious civil rights violations, and it essentially makes it much harder for people who file those lawsuits to present their cases or collect any money damages. That is, qualified immunity is a legal doctrine that often shields public officials from any liability, including in cases where they are accused of violating civil rights. How much would you say you already know about qualified immunity: a lot, some, just a little, or nothing at all?

A lot	17%
Some	37%
Just a little	30%
Nothing at all	14%
Not sure	2%

Q16 Qualified immunity prevents people who are victims of police misconduct from having their cases heard when their rights have been violated. Removing this legal barrier would allow families, victims, and survivors to access justice in court and hold law enforcement accountable when they commit civil rights violations. Would you strongly support, somewhat support, somewhat oppose, or strongly oppose eliminating qualified immunity in Vermont?

Strongly support	43%
Somewhat support	31%
Somewhat oppose	9%
Strongly oppose	8%
Not sure	8%

Q17 One of the criticisms of qualified immunity is that it allows police to violate civil rights without any consequences or accountability, which damages the credibility of law enforcement and undermines trust in local communities. - Very serious concerns* 47%
- Somewhat serious concerns* 31%
- No real concerns* 16%
- Not sure* 7%

Q18 Another criticism of qualified immunity is that by shielding officers from legal liability, it removes the incentive to follow the rules and may encourage some bad officers to abuse their power and violate people’s civil rights. Does this give you very serious concerns, somewhat serious concerns, or no real concerns about qualified immunity?

- Very serious concerns* 54%
- Somewhat serious concerns* 26%
- No real concerns* 16%
- Not sure* 3%

Q19 Another criticism of qualified immunity is that victims of police abuse can’t present their claims on an even playing field, and are essentially shut out of the normal court process. Does this give you very serious concerns, somewhat serious concerns, or no real concerns about qualified immunity?

- Very serious concerns* 53%
- Somewhat serious concerns* 28%
- No real concerns* 15%
- Not sure* 4%
